Ed-ward Per-ro-net. The first stan-za ap-peared anon-y-mous-ly in The Gos-pel Mag-a-zine,
No-vem-ber 1779. Tra - John Edmund Parki

One of the most dra-ma-tic in-stanc-es of [this hymn's] use was found in the ex-per-i-ence of the Rev. E. P. Scott in In-dia. His friends had urged him not to ven-ture near a cer-tain bar-bar-ous in-land tribe, whom he wished to evan-gel-ize. But he went forth with high cour-age, ne-ver wa-ver-ing in his du-ty, and trust-ing in God to pro-tect him. When at last he reached their coun-try among the hills, he came up-on a com-pa-ny of these sav-ag-es. Im-me-di-ate-ly they sur-round-ed him, point-ing their spears at him with threat-en-ing scowls. He had no-thing in his hand but his vi-o-lin; and so, clos-ing his eyes, he be-gan to play and sing, "All Hail the Pow-er of Je-sus' Name." When at last he opened his eyes he ex-pect-ed to be killed in-stant-ly. But his life had been spared through the sing-ing of the hymn. Their spears had dropped, and they re-ceived him first with cur-i-o-si-ty and in-ter-est, and then lat-er with ea-gern-ess, as he told them the gos-pel sto-ry and won their hearts to the will of Je-sus Christ.
